OCTOBER 9, 2010

Today is our last full market day of the year and so we say goodbye to the ninth season of the Geauga Fresh Farmers Market and a huge thank you to everyone who made the market such a huge success. The market is a run using volunteers for tasks such as parking, setting up, preparing the newsletter, and operating the market booth. It is with the devoted help of these volunteers that we can provide you a consistent and exciting market each week. All of our volunteers and board of directors were listed in last week's newsletter.

Many of our vendors offer products and services for your Holiday gift needs and entertaining throughout the year, so here is a list with their contact information for your convenience.
